"RUT" WALTER—WISCONSIN TRACK COACH

Charles "Rut" Walter, Head Coach of Track and Cross Country for the University of Wisconsin, will be the guest speaker for the Rotary Club of Madison next Wednesday noon at the Hotel Loraine. He will discuss Wisconsin's track prospects for this season and will also discuss some of the United States prospects for the coming 1964 Olympics to be held in Tokyo, Japan next October.

Rut is a native of Kokomo, Indiana. He graduated from Kokomo High School in 1926, achieving all-state honors in basketball and track. He played center in basketball and won State Championships in three track events—100 and 220 yard dashes, and the 440 yard run.

He graduated from Northwestern University in 1930 with a B.S. degree in Education and an overall "B" average. He was captain of the basketball and track teams his senior year and reigned as Big Ten quarter-mile Champion in 1928, '29, and '30. In 1929 he was NCAA 440 yard Champion with a fine time of 47.9 seconds, and placed second in that event in 1928 and 1930.

He began a 30 year association on Northwestern's athletic staff after graduation in 1930. He was basketball assistant coach for ten seasons; he served as track assistant from 1930 to 1952, and was also director of intramural sports program for 11 years. He served in the Navy during World War II from 1942 until his discharge in October, 1945.

Coach "Rut" Walter came to Wisconsin in 1960 to assume charge of the Cross Country, Track and Field Programs for the Badgers. He lifted the Badgers from the depths of the Big Ten in Track and Field, winning the Indoor Title in 1962, placing second Outdoors in 1962 and 1963, and third Indoors in 1963. He recently was named an Assistant Coach for the 1964 United States Track and Field Team that will compete in the Olympics in Tokyo in October.

Let's have a fine turn out to greet Coach Walter on his first appearance before our Club.

BIG TURN OUT TO HEAR GOV. WALLACE

A crowd of three hundred, nearly one hundred of them Visiting Rotarians and guests, were present at the Hotel Loraine last Wednesday noon to hear George C.
Wallace, Governor of Alabama, present his views on the pending civil rights bill, as guest speaker for the Rotary Club of Madison.

Governor Wallace likened the bill to an iceberg with the biggest percentage of it hidden beneath the surface. He said, "ten per cent is civil rights and ninety per cent is extension of executive power."

He mentioned two recent Chicago Tribune editorials which he said warned of dangers of the civil rights bill passage. He then said, "Some Midwest papers are now beginning to see what we're talking about on civil rights."

He quoted a Congressman from New Hampshire who warned that "private rights are involved" in this bill. He quoted a past president of the American Bar Association, who also warned of dangers if the bill is passed.

GOV. WALLACE

"This bill is not aimed at Alabama and Mississippi," he reminded us, "but is aimed at the entire country."

"If this bill is passed it will come back to haunt them," Wallace said, as he predicted many congressmen would be ending their final years in Washington. He also predicted they will be in real trouble when it comes to enforcing provisions of the bill. He said the bill passed the House because many congressmen feared a "bloc vote." One congressman reportedly had said that, if a secret vote had been taken, the bill would not have received fifty votes.

"The most vicious feature of this civil rights legislation is that which threatens the right of enjoyment of private property." This he called the basic and historic concept of Anglo-Saxon jurisprudence. "The only place you have human rights is where you have property rights," Wallace said. He quoted both John Adams' and Abraham Lincoln's statements on property rights.

He warned that it will affect the entire country, business, industry and people and may destroy our system of checks and balance. He said practically no area of business which will not be affected by the public accommodations section of the bill, and added that it would include boarding houses (with accommodations for six or more), and "private clubs," including fraternal and social organizations.

Speaking on the right to jury trial, he warned that passage of the bill will lead to abolishing them through extended use of injunctions. Because injunctions could be used to prevent people from not complying with the public accommodations feature if they are about to violate it, the bill represents the start of thought control, Wallace said.

Speaking of racial balance, he said that "racial imbalance," previously mentioned eight times, is now out. He said it could affect practically all housing, where the Federal government grants, loans, or guarantees funds. He pointed out that it could affect seniority rights of union members.

Wallace told of the difficulty in getting a copy of the bill but advised members of his audience to "read the bill" if you can. "You will find this bill gives the President the right to take any action he deems appropriate to end discrimination."

Wallace warned that it will destroy the American concept of "free enterprise" and is aimed at taking away your rights.

Our thanks to Governor Wallace for presenting his views.

VEEPS MAKE NEWS BIFF and FRAN

Announcements in the newspapers a week ago informed us that: Francis D. "Fran" Holford, controller of Oscar Mayer & Co., has been elected vice-president by the company's board of directors; and Bernard F. "Biff" Mautz Jr. was elected vice-president of the Mautz Paint and Varnish Co.

Our congratulations to both Biff and Fran on being elected Veeps of your respective companies.

— SABIN-ON-SUNDAY, FEB. 23 —

JOHN TO WPL BOARD

John Canfield, vice-president in charge of district operations and sales of Wisconsin Power and Light Co. (WPL), was elected a member of the company's board of directors at a meeting last Tuesday.

John has been with WPL since he graduated from the University of Wisconsin a few years ago, and that is most certainly Vocational Service In Action.

Congratulations, John, on your election to your company's board of directors.

BILL IS "AD MAN OF THE YEAR"

Club Vice-President William "Bill" Scrivner, who has been doing a most commendable job of presiding at our last few meetings while Prexy Del is on vacation, was named "Advertising Man of the Year," last Monday evening at the meeting of the Madison Advertising Club.

Bill, advertising manager of Madison Newspapers, Inc., received the silver medal award from former Club member Ben Hovel, last year's award winner.

Congratulations, Bill, for being named "Ad Man of the Year." It is most certainly solid proof of your Continuing Vocational Service In Action.

SYMPATHY TO DON

On behalf of the members of the Rotary Club of Madison we extend our sincere sympathy to Don Blanchard, whose father, John C. Blanchard, 82, died Saturday (Feb. 15, 1964) after a brief illness at a Madison nursing home.

BILL NAMED COMMISSIONER

William A. "Bill" Walker has been appointed jury commissioner for the Western District of the Federal Court. Judge Rabinovitz announced the appointment Friday Feb. 14, according to the newspapers.

Congratulations, Bill, for your Continuing Community Service In Action.

HAL REMEMBERS TWO FRIENDS

"I was shocked indeed to read in Feb. 8th Rotary News, that Will and Sid Orth had both been called and I have such warm memories of these grand Rotarians and comrades!

Will was timeless—wise, interesting, outgoing in his friendliness; generous with a charming old world culture I think was all his own. I shall never get him! Nor the visits we paid to family estate, and the wonderful hospitality of Will and his boys.

Sid I had watched from the days when he was a gifted and promising student. It was heart warming to see him grow into a mature and developed into the gifted out-going scientist and physician, we admired and loved.

I join with all of you in admiration of these men, and in affectionate memories of them. How much they enriched our lives!"

Rotarily,

(Signed) Hal Bradley

Ed. Thanks, Hal, for sharing your memories with us.

To the newer members who are fortunate enough to have known him, Dr. Harold C. "Hal" Bradley was a member of our Club from 1923 until 1940 when he retired from the U.W. Medical School and moved to Berkeley, Calif.
